News Digest.

Details of the Europa's news have been received. Austria has inaugurated a reign of terror in Venetia, imprisoning the people by hundreds, for expressing themselves in favor of liberty. The important town of Tetuan, in Morocco, had been taken by the Spaniards, after a battle of twenty-four hours' duration.

HENRY S. LANE and O. P. MORTON have been nominated respectively for Governor and Lieutenant Governor, by the Republicans of Indiana. It is a strong ticket and will be triumphantly elected.

FROM MADISON.

Editorial Correspondence of the Sentinel.

MADISON, Thursday Eve., Feb. 22, '60.

The Democratic State Convention closed its labors at 10 o'clock last night, and many of the Delegates left for home, by the early morning trains to-day. Before the Convention met it was understood that "our LARRABEE" and Mr. H. C. HOBART were rival candidates for the appointment of Delegates to Charleston; and both were in attendance to look after their respective interests. The result was, in Madison parlance, that both were "scooped out." Nothing was said about "Popular Sovereignty"; no reference made to the Dred Scott decision, or the Cincinnati Platform; not even the empty compliment of "a favorable allusion" bestowed upon the BUCHANAN Administration; in short, all the Convention did was to set up DOUGLAS as the Democratic idol, and endorse him and his creed as the only "genuine Sarsaparilla."

Gen. ELLIS, of Portage, the veteran editor of the Stevens Point Pinery, is out in to-day's Patriot, with a pretty sharp article upon the refusal of the Convention to admit him to a seat. He charges that the Douglas men kept him out, because they thought that he would not vote in favor of the Douglas resolutions; and he affectionately counsels the Democracy to return from their Free-Soil "wanderings" and resume their stand upon the old platform of "nationality and the Constitution"; i. e. as our Southern brethren construe it. The General also intimates that the only object of introducing and pressing the resolutions was to give the mover, Mr. P. H. SMITH, "the first claim to a Cabinet appointment under the new Administration." Postmaster STEEVER'S letter to DOMINICK DEVANNEY, a Delegate from Marquette County—the contents of which were pretty well known, by hearsay, to most of the Convention—gave rise to a lively episode. The letter, if the contents are correctly reported, must have been a rich one.

The DOUGLAS men made much of it and the opponents of Mr. HOBART used it as an effective weapon to kill him off as a delegate to Charleston.

Politics, for the past two days, have considerably retarded legislation, and the business of the session has made but little progress this week. The members say, however, that as soon as the politicians have got through with their Conventions, the Legislature will settle down to its work and hurry it to a speedy conclusion. There seems to be no good reason why the session cannot be brought to a close before the end of March.

Very little of interest transpired in either House to-day. The usual routine of petitions, resolutions, bills introduced, bills discussed and bills passed, was gone through with. The bill to repeal the "Township Library Law," of last year, passed the Assembly to-day, by 51 yeas to 29 nays. The subject of the distribution of the public lands, donated by Congress in aid of the various Railroads in this State, is engaging the attention of a Select Committee. A strong effort is making to take away the Land Grants from the companies to which the State voted them, some years since, and transfer them to other parties. I do not think that the period has arrived for such action; or that the time and attention of the Legislature should be taken up with this vexed question at the present session.

Mr. FAIRCHILD, of Madison, has introduced in the Assembly two excellent bills for the preservation of game and fish in this State. The have been carefully drawn up, and strike me as being just right. The frequent changes in our laws, on these subjects, have led to much confusion and uncertainty. The bills settle the matter definitely and rightly. If they shall become laws, as I hope they may, and their provisions are faithfully and impartially enforced, game and fish, of the best quality, will always abound in the prairies, thickets and streams of Wisconsin.

We have had cold and clear weather today. Winter has not yet relinquished his sceptre. R. K.

DODGE COUNTY GETTING READY.—The Convention to choose delegates to Madison, convened at Beaver Dam on Saturday last, and was organized by the election of F. H. KEIES, Esq., as President, and J. H. H. BABCOCK, Esq., Secretary.

The balloting for delegates to the State Convention, resulted in the choice of M. S. BARRETT and G. H. WELLS.

A vote was taken to indicate a preference for Presidential candidate, and WM. H. SEWARD was found to be the first choice of the Convention, the vote being made unanimous.

After the transaction of this business, a motion was made to organize a Republican Club for this Assembly District. The matter being briefly discussed, the motion prevailed unanimously, and Messrs. L. MERRILL, G. H. WELLS and A. SWARTHOUT were appointed a Committee to draw up a Constitution for such a Club.

PERSONAL.—Prof. JONES, of Evanston College, delivered his poem, "The Fate of the Illini," at the Methodist Church in Kenosha, on Thursday evening last. It is said to be a superior production.

THE OSHKOSH DEMOCRAT has changed hands, FINNEY & DAVIS having sold the establishment to Mr. GEO. GARY, who now assumes the management.

THE LYNN SHOEMAKERS.—An adjourned meeting of the journeyman shoemakers of Lynn was held on Saturday evening last, for the purpose of hearing a report of a committee appointed at a previous meeting to confer with the manufacturers in regard to a strike. The committee reported that the manufacturers were generally in favor of the movement and would pay the prices demanded. Some of the manufacturers had sold a portion of their stock and refused to take orders except at advanced prices. They had signified their willingness to contribute to the support of the journeymen during the strike and the amount thus far subscribed would exceed $1000. The report was accepted, and the meeting adjourned until Tuesday evening.

CONVICTION FOR MAKING FALSE ENTRIES ON BANK BOOKS.—On Saturday last, in New York, WILLIAM J. LANE, a clerk in the Fulton Bank, was convicted of making false entries to the credit of his father, on the books of that Bank. Thirty-nine indictments had been found against him. The counsel for the defence argued that a false entry made for the benefit of the party making it was not forgery within the meaning of the Statute.—The Judge charged the jury, that if the intention was to defraud the Bank, an offence under the Statute had been committed. After deliberating an hour, the jury returned a verdict of guilty.

AT A MEETING of the First Presbyterian Church and Society of the town of Decatur, Green County, in the Methodist Church, on the 20th inst., WM. OLIVER, E. A. MCNAIR, and WM. MARTIN were elected Trustees.

This is the oldest Presbyterian Church in Green County, having been organized over ten years ago, and in 1851 was regularly supplied by Rev. THOS. FRASER,—now of California, and numbered over fifty communicants. The place of meeting is now permanently changed from Decatur to Brodhead, and the Society have purchased a lot near the Methodist Church, and will erect a house of worship in the course of the next summer.

IN A YEAR and a half more St. Louis will have the largest and finest hotel in the world, the "Fifth Avenue" not accepted. It is to be called the "Lindell Hotel," and is now in course of erection by a joint stock company. The whole square between Sixth and Seventh streets, with Washington avenue on the South and Green street on the North, will be covered by this mammoth structure.

DECAPITATION.—Mr. J. M. HAINES, a highly respectable citizen of the town of Merrimac, Sauk Co., has been removed from the Post Office, to make room for a Democrat by the name of PERCY, a man who, the Baraboo Republic says, cannot write his own name.

FIRE AT GREEN BAY.—On Sunday last, a fire broke out in a saloon kept by A. KLAUS, which was entirely destroyed. The United States Hotel was in great danger, but through the exertions of the firemen was saved.

SPORTING.—A race is to come off between a couple of horses, owned by Mr. THOMAS MCLELLAND and Mr. ELI JONES of Berlin, on the Sacramento Course, on Saturday, March 3d, for $100 a side.

A VALUABLE stone quarry has been discovered about two miles east of Berlin City.

SAD ACCIDENT.—Mr. Samuel Gilman, of Jefferson, in this State, and some years since a resident of this city, while riding through the town of Milton on his way home, was thrown from his horse and so badly injured that death ensued twelve hours after. We are informed that Mr. Gilman had a day or two previous to the accident, purchased the horse he rode of Mr. Ruble of this town, and had been warned by him of the vicious temper of the animal, and was strictly enjoined not to attempt to ride him. At the time he started for home he was observed to be leading the horse, but it is supposed that being tired by his long journey, and perhaps deceived by the gentle appearance of the animal, he was induced to try the experiment of riding him. The experiment, as it appears, cost the unfortunate man his life.

It will be remembered that but little more than a year has past since another of these Gilman brothers was killed in this city by an accident very similar to this one. While riding through State Street, the buggy in which he was sitting was struck by a span of runaway horses and he was thrown out with such violence as to fracture his skull, causing almost instant death.—Beloit Journal, 22d.

PRESENTIMENT IN A DREAM.—A young lady, daughter of Herman Miller, Track Master of the Central Railroad, recently told her parents soon after she arose, that she had dreamed last night that Mr. Keist, who attends the Railroad bridge at Allen's Creek, was killed, and that Mrs. K. came to the House to tell Mr. Miller. A short time after relating this dream, and while the family were at breakfast, Mrs. Keist came in to tell that her husband was killed by the cars last night at Brighton. So impressed was the girl with the force of her dream, that she ran to another room when she saw the woman approaching the door, as if she felt sure that she had a tale of sorrow to tell.

Mr. Keist was a German who had worked for a number of years on the Railroad under the directions of Mr. Miller, and his wife had often called at his house and thus became well acquainted with the family. When she had told her dream, Mr. M. had not heard of the accident, indeed, the Coroner having charge of the body did not know who the unfortunate man was. While there are thousands of dreams that are premonitory, now and then, there is one occurrence, of which the dreamer knew nothing.—Roch. Union.

BURNED TO DEATH IN THE STREET.—The Louisville Courier of the 10th, says:

"Green street, above Hancock, was the scene of a horrible occurrence last evening, about 6 o'clock. The dress of Frances Laville a young woman, an inmate of Mrs. Lawes' house, accidentally caught fire from the grate, and almost in an instant was in flames. Her companions were appalled by terror, and the frightened woman fled into the street. The wind fanned the flames, and while the poor terror-stricken creature rushed down the pavement, the fiery element was doing its fatal work. Her clothing was entirely consumed on her person, and the woman finally went back into the house and fell on the floor. Her flesh was burnt to a crisp, so horribly that she died in fifteen minutes. She inhaled a quantity of the flames, which was the immediate cause of her death. The street was crowded in a short time, and many saw the poor unfortunate die, as it were, on her feet.

FIRE AT NIAGARA FALLS.—We learn from the railroad men that the elegant residence of Gen. Whitney, proprietor of the Cataract House at Niagara Falls, has been totally destroyed by fire. The house was situated half a mile above Suspension Bridge, on the McAdamized road leading from the Falls to the Bridge. The fire took in a bed room occupied by some of the domestics of the family, and no doubt by accident. A large part of the best furniture was removed, and saved in a damaged condition. We did not hear an estimate made of the loss, nor have we heard the amount of insurance.—Rochester Union.

BRIDGING THE MISSISSIPPI.—The bridge across the Mississippi river at Clinton, Iowa, is a substantial structure, and cost $66,000. This bridge is built from the eastern shore to an island, leaving the main channel unbridged. The train will pass over on a large steam ferry boat, and there will be no change of cars between Chicago and Cedar Rapids. As soon as the Rock Island bridge question is settled, as to the right of railroads to bridge the rivers, the bridge will be completed across the main channel.

SHOT.—We learn that a man named Quinn, living near the old Depot, was shot the other morning by a man whom he had had some difficulty with. Mr. Quinn was not dangerously wounded.—Fox Lake Gazette.

Our Musical Court

PRAISEWORTHY.—We understand that a movement was made in one of the Good Templar Lodges, the other evening, to bring the right kind of influences to bear upon the more destitute portion of the community. We are glad to hear it. The Good Templar organization embodies a great deal of energy and zeal, which, if rightly directed, will accomplish almost anything. There are a great number of our most estimable citizens engaged in the cause, and they have met our friendly strictures heretofore, with the true spirit and set about to remedy what was objectionable and make the organization more practical. So great a number of young men and women, enthusiastic and full of vitality, cannot fail in being instrumental in "doing good," if the right means are employed.

While upon this subject it may not be amiss to mention another feature which we do not think advantageous to the temperance cause. We refer to the "Trumpeters" who make a practice of reiterating, in a blatant manner, through the press, the evils of drugged liquors; the horrors of nux vomica and prussic acid. This unnecessary cry of "poison," and tiresome repetition of what we all know about "French Brandy" and "Delirium Tremens" is surfeiting the reading part of the community, and, to say the least of it, is a great waste of valuable time and talents. The temperance cause does not need writers or talkers so much as workers. GOUGH used to relate, in his own inimitable way, a simple incident, of a cart which had become "set" in a hole, and the crowd on the sidewalk instructed the driver how to overcome the difficulty. One gentleman directed him to loosen this and tighten that and whip the animal over the legs. Another directed him to overcome the gravitation with a plank for a lever, and to hold his horse's head, and so they theorized until a Negro came along, and, taking off his coat, laid his muscular shoulder to the wheel without saying a word, and the driver whipped up his horse and the vehicle went on its way.

Perhaps this will fit as well here as anywhere.

FIRE.—Yesterday about noon a fire broke out in the coffee and spice factory of Messrs. FLINT, under the Armory Hall, on Spring Street. The flames originated in a mass of roasting barley and spread to to the ceiling with great rapidity. By the indefatigable exertions of those employed in the building the flames were, however, subdued with only a trifling loss.

WE CALL THE ATTENTION of our readers to a new musical enterprise which, judging from what we have seen and heard of it, will be likely to prove a great success. We refer to the Milwaukee Philharmonic Society, started about a month ago; an association formed by the ablest musicians of our city, who, under the direction of the well-known composer and conductor E. SOBOLEWSKI, Esq., propose to give monthly concerts, with an especial view of bringing before the public of our city, principally, compositions for orchestra by old and new masters.

We welcome this new enterprise the more heartily as our Musical Society has always, of necessity, considered their orchestra performances subordinate to vocal music.

We had the pleasure to be present at one of the rehearsals of the Philharmonic Society, and do not hesitate to say that we never have heard a Symphonie as well performed in our city, as the G minor, by MOZART, at the rehearsal we attended.

The programmes for the concerts to be given monthly, as proposed, will include Symphonies, by RICHARD WAGNER, FRANZ LIST, EDWARD LODOLEWSKI, and other modern composers of merit, not omitting, of course, the standard works of HAYDEN, MOZART and BEETHOVEN. As regards vocal music, we will have an opportunity to become acquainted with the masterpieces of the old Italian and German composers, as well as the productions of the modern school.

The very attractive programme for the first concert, will be found in our advertising columns.

THE MOUNT VERNON FESTIVAL.—We are glad to learn, from good authority, that the entertainment at Albany Hall, last week, in aid of the Mount Vernon Fund, was successful financially, as well as in every other respect: The whole expense will not exceed $300 and the managers hope to nett about $230 for the Fund. Considering the hard times and the numerous other calls made upon the public liberality, during the present month, the result may be set down as quite satisfactory. It is conceded on all hands that the Festival was the most attractive and best conducted affair ever got up in our city; and great credit is due to the Vice-Regent and Lady Managers, for their zealous and untiring efforts to render the entertainment a complete success.

MR. PRENTICE WILL POSITIVELY LECTURE!!—We were shown a despatch yesterday, saying that he had started and would lecture in this city this evening. We know of no man, North or South, whom we would rather hear than Mr. PRENTICE; we admire his wisdom and energy, his wit—that keen, scathing satire, which is sharper than a two-edged sword. We hope a large audience will greet him to-night; we can promise all who go a rare treat.

MISS MARTHA HULETT, a celebrated trance speaker and medium, will lecture at Good Templar's Hall, in Bowman's block, on Sunday, at 3 and 7 o'clock P. M. Admission 10 cents, to defray expenses. The public are respectfully invited to attend. She will answer questions in trance state if required.

N. B. The Committee has just received information that Miss H. will be here without fail.

ON SUNDAY next, the 26th inst., being the first Sunday of Lent, three services will be held in the Free Church of the Atonement, corner of Michigan and Jefferson streets, by Rev. ROBERT PAUL, of Pennsylvania. Morning service at half-past 10 A. M.; afternoon service at half-past 3, and evening service at 7 o'clock.

HOUSES TO RENT.—J. S. FILLMORE has a very nice house on Fifth street, near Spring st. Rent $10 per month. Also, a house on Van Buren st., between Oneida and Biddle streets, west side; rent $200 per year. House on Jefferson street, next to St. Paul's Church. Also a good office for commission business to rent, opposite the M. & M. R. R. office.

FIRE.—A fire originated last night in the store of S. & J. WISE, wholesale grocers, No. 73 East Water street. When first discovered, the interior of the building was all in a blaze. We are informed that nothing was saved, and that the stock and building was heavily insured.

CONFIRMATION.—To-morrow, at 3 1-2 P. M., the Right Rev. Bishop KEMPER will administer the Holy rite of Confirmation in Christ's Mission Church, corner of Walnut and Fifth streets. The services will be in English.

P. O. CONTRIBUTION BOXES.—The contribution boxes at our city Post Office are for the benefit of the Washington Monument, and not, as some suppose, for the Mount Vernon Fund.

J. W. GRISWOLD, on Main street, next door to the Newhall House, has a fine lot of white Neshannock potatoes. See advertisement.

PRICE, FARMER, & Co., have a dwelling house in the Seventh Ward, and some choice city property to exchange. See advertisement.

THE REASON WHY, IS THAT BY Nature's own process it restores the natural color permanently after the hair becomes gray; supplies the natural fluids, and thus makes it grow on bald heads, removes all dandruff, itching and heat from the scalp, quiets and tones up the nerves, and thus cures all nervous headache, and may be relied upon to cure all diseases of the scalp and hair; it will stop and keep it from falling off; makes it soft, glossy, healthy and beautiful and if used by the young two or three times a week, it will never fall or become gray; then reader, read the following and judge for yourselves:

NEW YORK, Jan. 8, 1858.
MESSRS. O. J. WOOD & CO.:
GENTLEMEN: Having heard a good deal about Professor Wood's Hair Restorative, and my hair being quite gray, I made up my mind to lay aside the prejudice which, in common with a great many persons, I had against all manner of patent medicines, and a short time ago I commenced using your article, to test it for myself.
The result has been so very satisfactory that I am very glad that I did so, and in justice to you, as well as for the encouragement of others who may be as gray as I was, but who having my prejudice without my reasons for setting it aside, are unwilling to give your Restorative a trial till they have further proof, and the best proof being ocular demonstration, I write you this letter, which you may show to any such and also direct them to me for further proof, who am in and out of the N. Y. Wire Railing Establishment every day.
My hair is now its natural color and much improved in appearance every way, being glossier and thicker and much more healthy looking.
I am, Yours Respectfully,

LIVINGSTON, Ala., Feb. 14, 1858.
PROF. WOOD—Dear Sir: Your Hair Restorative has done much good in this part of the country.—My hair has been slightly diminishing for several years, caused, I suppose, from a slight burn when I was quite an infant. I have been using your Hair Restorative for six weeks and I find that I have a fine head of hair now growing, after having used all other remedies known, to no effect. I think it the most valuable remedy now extant, and advise all who are afflicted that way to use your remedy.
You can publish this if you think proper.
Yours, &c., S. W. MIDDLETON.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 9, 1857.
PROF. WOOD—Dear sir: Your Hair Restorative is proving itself beneficial to me. The front, and also the back part of my head almost lost its covering,—was in fact BALD. I have used but two half pint bottles of your Restorative, and now the top of my head is well studded with a promising crop of young hair, and the front is also receiving its benefit. I have tried other preparations without any benefit whatever. I think from my own personal recommendation, I can induce many others to try it.
Yours, respectfully, D. R. THOMAS, M. D.
No. 464 Vine street

The Restorative is put up in bottles of three sizes, viz: Large, medium, and small; the small holds ½ a pint, and retails for one dollar per bottle; the medium holds at least twenty per cent. more in proportion than the small, retails for two dollars per bottle; the large holds a quart, 40 per cent. more in proportion, and retails for $3 a bottle.

TELEGRAPH!

Further by the Europa.

BOSTON, Feb. 24—3 P. M.

The R. M. steamship Europa, from Liverpool via Halifax, arrived at 7 o'clock this morning.

Her mails for the South were forwarded by the 8:30 train, via New Haven, which is due in New York at 5 P. M.

She had five cabin and ten steerage passengers and a general cargo. She left Glasgow on the 4th of January.

The ship Jane E. Walsh, of Yarmouth, from Liverpool for Havana with a cargo of coal, foundered at sea on the 31st of January in lat. 47 long. 91. Her crew were saved.

From the Gibraltar Chronicle of Frebuary 1st: It is reported by a person who left Tetuan yesterday evening, that skirmishing was going on the whole of yesterday, and that the Spanish artillery was shelling the Moorish camp.

Numerous steam transports were discharging shot, shell, powder, provisions, &c., for the use of the army.

Feb. 2d.—We have not yet received any account from the Spanish camp concerning the battle on January 31st.

The Hogasnelta, of Allresiras, speaks of it as the most serious affair in which the Spanish troops have been engaged.

Some stir has been created in the Moorish camp, and it was rumored that another brother of the Sultan had arrived with 20,000 cavalry.

MADRID, Feb. 7.—Tetuan has been taken by the Spanish, after a battle which was fought on the 4th.

Eight hundred tents, forming the five encampments of the enemy's artillery and all the other equipments of the Moorish army, have been taken.

Washington Matters.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 23

The Speaker laid before the House to-day a message from the President, enclosing four memorials from residents in Kansas and Nebraska, at or near the Eastern slope of the Rocky Mountains. They invoke the interposition of Congress for the extinguishment of Indian titles to the lands, and ask for the establishment of an assay office in that quarter, and the creation of a territorial government composed of parts of New Mexico, Utah, Kansas and Nebraska; and that an act be passed for this purpose, and that a census be taken. They represent their increasing population, and the importance of such actions. The President, in accordance with the request of the memorialists, enclosed these memorials, and recommended that such provisions be made for their protection, as the exigency of the case may require. The memorials were referred to the Committee on Territories.

NEW YORK, Feb. 23.

The Tribune's Washington correspondence says:—The revenue for the months ending December 31st, exceeds by $4,223,000 the same period last year. The increase at New York, for January and February, authorizes the belief that Secretary Cobb's estimate of $56,000,000 for the present fiscal year will be fully sustained, and perhaps exceeded, if the imports continue to crowd in as recently.

The amount subject to draft in the Treasury is $5,500,000. Besides this sum the Secretary has at his disposal about $25,000,000 of treasury notes capable of re-issue. These notes will cover the Post Office liabilities of the last two quarters, whenever required by that Department, leaving the other balance for ordinary purposes.

HARRISBURG, PA., Feb. 24—3 P. M.

The resolutions adopted by the Pennsylvania People's State Convention declare that the Administration, by disregarding the claims of the industrial interest, fostering sectional excitement and the rankest corruption, has degraded Republican institutions, and deserves a signal rebuke from the friends of constitutional order; that, believing it to be an element of political weakness, we are unalterably opposed to the extension of slavery into free territories; that the dogma, that the Constitution carries slavery into the territories, is a new political heresy, subversive of peace and harmony; that the rights of the States must be sustained, inviolate; that the lawless invasion of the soil of any State, or Territory of the United States, is a grave crime; that the opposition party does not seek the abolition of slavery where it now exists, but leaves its amelioration and utter abandonment to the moral and religious forces pertaining to the slaveholding communities, assured of the final prevalence of justice throughout the land; that the threats of disunion by the Democratic members of Congress are a bold avowal of contemplated treason, which it is the imperative duty of the people to stringently confront and forever silence; that while opposed to the extension of slavery, we hail people of the South as brethren, rejoicing in their prosperity, and that we are prepared to sustain their constitutional rights and privileges. The resolutions also approve of the Homestead law, and for the purity of the ballot-box and the prevention of fraud upon the naturalization laws.

Nomination for Governor.

PETERSBURGH, VA., Feb. 24—3 P. M.

The North Carolina Opposition Convention nominated John Poole, of Pasquitauk, for Governor by acclamation.

The Convention adjourned sine die.

BY LAST NIGHT'S REPORT

Congressional Proceedings.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 24—9 P. M.

HOUSE.—On motion of Mr. Potter, the Committee on Public Lands are to inquire into the expediency of reporting a bill authorizing the Secretary of the Interior to issue duplicate land warrants where the original has been lost, under such rules and regulations as he may prescribe.

The House then proceeded to vote for a Printer: Whole number of votes 191; necessary to a choice 95: Mr. Ball had 81; Mr. Glossenbrenner 9; Mr. Mitchell 15. He received the South American vote and some Republicans. Mr. Stokes voted for Mr. Walterson, Mr. Adrian for Windem and Mr. Farnsworth for Mr. Paulburn.

The House again voted: Whole number 188; necessary to a choice 98; Mr. Ball 70; Mr Glossenbrenner 89; Mr. Mitchell 17; Mr. Windem 1; Mr. Waterston 1.

Mr. Preston then nominated Mr. Seaton.

The House then voted. Whole number of votes 185, necessary to a choice 93; Ball 75, Glossbrenner 75, Seaton 16, (these were the votes of the Southern Opposition and some Democrats,) Mitchell 16, scattering 3.

On motion of Mr. Vallandingham, a resolution was adopted, instructing the Committee on Public Lands to inquire into the causes of the great delay in issuing land patents, and reported such measures as may be necessary as a remedy.

There were no further proceedings in relation to the election of a printer.

The House went into Committee of the Whole on the State of the Union.

Adjourned till Monday.

SENATE.—After some unimportant preliminary business Mr. Brown's resolution relative to the Territories was taken up.

Mr. Doolittle addressed the Senate. He had no apologies to make for the Supreme Court of Wisconsin in construing the Constitution according to its convictions. No Senator had a right to demand an apology and least of all the Senator from Georgia, for the Supreme Court of that State as late as 1854 after an able resume of its difficulty with the Supreme Court of the U. S., decided that it was co-equal and co-ordinate. The precise issue between the Senator from Ga., and himself, was whether any authority could be conferred on a U. S. Dist. Court by a law in itself unconstitutional.

The Senator asserted that such power was conferred. He denied it; the very thing that a State court had to decide, under the writh of habeas corpus, was whether the imprisonment was illegal or not, and that depended upon the constitutionality of the law under which the imprisonment had taken place. Unconstitutional law was no law at all, and the Senator says that though a law be unconstitutional, the action of the U. S. Court is binding. That was begging the whole question—was arguing in a circle. He regarded the action of the U. S. Court as extra Judicial and of no authority, and quoted legal authority to substantiate this.

He quoted Jefferson's opinion in which he held that it sought by sapping and mining to subvert the Constitution and press it into one consolidated government. The great question in the science of American government was, when the jurisdiction of the State and Federal Governments came into confliction who was to decide? It would never do to say that the decisions of the Federal courts should be received as final and conclusive. When it usurps power its decisions must not be respected, and are binding upon nobody. When the States and the United States differ, there is no common umpire but the people. He believed a party calling itself Democratic, in the face of its own platform, now bowing down to worship at the feet of an imperial court, had asserted this new doctrine of Judicial infallibility of immaculate decision in order to irrevocably fix slavery in the Territories.

Mr. Toombs got the floor, when the Senate adjourned till Monday.

Additional by the Europa.

BOSTON, Feb. 24—9 P. M.

The brother of the Emperor took to flight, and a summons was transmitted to the enemy to surrender within 24 hours.

A despatch from the city came into the Spanish camp to beg for mercy, as the Musselmen had begun to pillage and slaughter in the town.

The division of Gen. Rias entered the place without any opposition, and was received with manifestations of joy.

Immense popular rejoicings are taking place at Madrid, which is splendidly illuminated. The acclamations of delight are general, and great preparations are being made for public fetes.

It appears that the Moors begun the action on the 31st, at 11 o'clock in the morning, by a fierce attack upon the Spanish advanced posts. They are said to have returned with increased fury to the attack; they closed with the Spanish battalions, and in the hand to hand combat which ensued, they were at last defeated, though they obstinately disputed every foot of ground.

In a cavalry charge, ordered by Gen. Salcono, four squadrons found their return intercepted by a body of 2000 Moorish horse and had to cut their way through. In this, they were aided by two other squadrons sent to their support.

Gen. Prim, with six battalions, stormed a height, commanding the field, but had to charge four times with the bayonet before he could gain the position. It was decided to hold the ground thus taken, and the artillery was sent to Prim in the course of the night. The loss on the Spanish side was considerable, but the number is not given. We hear that a transport arrived this morning at Algeseras with 7 officers and 60 rank and file, wounded.

A letter from Milan says: We continue to receive more and more afflicting news from Venetia. They have sent off for the fortresses of Moravia and the Danube, two trains, one of 80 and the other of 100 prisoners, all in chains, who had been arrested on suspicion of feeling love for their country. These persons have had no form of trial. Fresh arrests are being made in all the towns of Venetia. These towns are being deserted, and every day acts of violence are committed. They persist in these acts of provocation in order to force the people to resist, which would prove a pretext for venting their rage on every one.

The annexation of Savoy to France was debated in the House of Lords. Strong sentiments were expressed against it.

The Wreck of the Hungarian.

HALIFAX, Feb. 24—9 P. M.

BARRINGTON, N. S., Feb. 24—9 P. M.

The wrecker informs me that on Monday night at 3 o'clock he saw from the mainland a steamer's light, it was standing for some time, and he supposed the ship had struck on the Horse Rake, about two miles from the Cape, at daylight a large steamer was seen ashore with one mast standing. He thinks he saw men on her when she went over, which was soon after daylight.

The report has reached me that the Steward's pocket has been picked up, having some passengers names for extras. I will inquire and report. Wednesday, the body of a child was found, and yesterday that of one man, supposed to be a fireman. The Coroner is attending to them. Portions of the mail and cargo are yet being picked up.

Anything further transpiring to-night will be telegraphed in the morning.

Indiana Republican State Convention.

INDIANAPOLIS, Feb. 22.

The Republican State Convention assembled at the Metropolitan Hall, at 9 o'clock this morning, and organized permanently by the election of Hon. P. A. Hackleman, of Rush county, President; Judge Otto, of Floyd county, Vice President, and Mr. M. C. Barber, of Jefferson county, Secretary.

The crowd of delegates being entirely too large to be accommodated in the Metropolitan Hall, a motion was carried, adjourning the Convention to State House Square.

Motions were made unanimously nominating Col. Henry S. Lane, of Montgomery county, for Governor, and Hon. O. P. Morton, of Wayne county, for Lieut. Governor.

Both were carried amid loud and prolonged cheers.

More Indian Depredations.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 24—9 P. M.

The Indian Bureau has received official advice that the Navajoes have at last commenced a decisive war upon our people, and are also killing the Mexicans along the Rio Grande. Supt. Collins says a war with the tribe is now without the possibility of prevention.

SCARLET FEVER IN HARTFORD.—The Hartford Times states that scarlet fever is prevalent in that city, there being two hundred cases now existing there. The family of Walter S. Williams is severely afflicted—no less than five of his household having been prostrated. One of the children died on Wednesday and another can hardly recover. Henry Barnard, L. L. D., has just lost a child of four years by this disease, and Mr. John Shepard two children by the same cause.

NEGRO MAN HUNG.—We learn from the Alexandria (Md.) Gazette, that a son of Doctor Boyle, of Upper Marlboro', was recently stabbed by a free negro man, and from the effects of the wound died in a few moments. The negro was arrested and committed to jail, but the indignant citizens assembled, broke open the jail, took out the negro and hung him.

REPUBLICAN STATE CONVENTION.

A Republican State Convention will be held at the Capitol, in Madison, on Wednesday, the 29th day of February, 1860, at 12 o'clock M., to choose four delegates from the State at large, and two from each Congressional District, to represent the State of Wisconsin in the Republican National Convention to be held at Chicago on the 13th of next June, to nominate two candidates for presidential electors for the State at large; to adopt such action as may be deemed advisable in view of the approaching election of Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of the State; and for the transaction of such other business as may be thought calculated to advance the interests of the party and promote the success of its principles.

Each Assembly District of the State will be entitled to two delegates in such Convention, except where a district includes more than one County, when each county will be entitled to two delegates.

The committee would respectfully suggest that Assembly District Conventions to elect delegates to the State Convention be held as early as Saturday, the 18th day of February.

A Sharp Reply—The Governor of Maryland Snubs the Legislature.

Some days ago, the Maryland House of Delegates appointed a committee to catechise Gov. HICKS; the immediate object of the investigation being to inquire of the Governor whether he had really presented his congratulations to Mr. PENNINGTON upon his election to the Speakership. Gov. HICKS's reply was sufficiently sharp, but very civil, as follows:

STATE OF MARYLAND, EXECUTIVE CHAMBER, ANNAPOLIS, Feb. 16, 1860.

To the House of Delegates—GENTLEMEN:—I have been informed by a Committee of your House that you have adopted an order, reciting, "That whereas it appears from the public press of the country that the Governor of Maryland has placed this State in a false position, by presenting his congratulations to Mr. Pennington, of New Jersey, a Black Republican, upon his election to the distinguished position of Speaker of the House of Representatives;" and directing a Committee, appointed by the Speaker, to inquire of the Governor whether his congratulations were presented at all, and if so, whether privately or officially.

I cannot admit the right of the House of Delegates to make any such inquiry of me; and the respect which, in my opinion, ought to be observed by each Department of the Government towards every other, precludes me from returning any answer to such a message, other than the acknowledgement of its receipt. THOS. H. HICKS.

GARIBALDI'S WIFE, Miss RAYMOND that was, is a Di Vernon, or Gay Spanker, and knows a good horse when she sees the animal as well as she knows a good man. She is patriotic, plump, and pretty, and pecuniarily well situated. The happy couple passed the lune de miel at Como, the most beautiful place in Italy, as Italy is the most beautiful country in the world. There is a difference of thirty years between them, and we hope it is all the difference they will ever know.

A MOVEMENT is now on foot, and it has the cordial support of State Prison Commissioner HEG, to create a new officer for the administration of Prison Discipline, to be styled the Moral Instructor; whose duty it shall be to keep a strict watch over the moral conduct of each prisoner, so far as he can by his own exertions, and that of all the keepers, and record the same.

A NEW KIND OF HONEY BEE FROM ITALY.—The New York Post says that Mr. S. B. PARSONS, of Flushing, Long Island, has just brought over an immense stock of Italian bees. He has some three millions, and has also imported an Italian bee-keeper.

Of these bees the Post says:

"They have been known in Northern Europe but a few years, and it is only in the Valteline and about the lakes that they are now found pure, and whence they can be safely exported only in the autumn or early winter. Their superiority to the common bee consists in their greater capacity to endure the cold; in the fact that they swarm more than twice the number annually; that their queens are much more prolific; that their workers commence much earlier in the season, and are much more industrious; that they are less apt to sting, and may be easily tamed by kind treatment; that the queen may be so educated as to lay her eggs in any hive in which she may be placed, while the bees of such a hive, deprived of their own queen, will readily receive her; that the proboscis of the worker is longer, and it can touch the depths of flowers which are entirely beyond the reach of the common bee.

Some of the Italian bee keepers estimate 60 to 70 pounds of honey per season to a young swarm, while 100 to 150 pounds is often the product of an old hive. An Italian queen will produce from 50 to 130 fertile young queens. The bees can be handled readily by a child, and each hive increased to fifty the first year. These bees are sent in boxes four inches wide, four inches deep and five inches long—an impregnated queen and 300 to 500 working bees, "educated"—educated for their position—through the post office from Italy to Hamburg.

Our next invention must be a mode of converting honey into loaf sugar and then a bee hive will be each man's sugar plantation.

A SUPERNATURAL LIGHT ON A RAILROAD TRACK.—An engineer employed on the Northern Central Railway in Maryland, informs the Baltimore Republican that on Friday night last, while he was running a freight train over the road, and when about ten miles from Baltimore, he was suddenly startled by seeing directly before him what he supposed to be the front light of another engine coming towards him—not over a hundred yards distant.

He immediately blew the whistle to put down the brakes, and finding he was about to run upon it, he reversed the engine, and did everything in his power to stop, but finding it impossible, he gave the alarm to the fireman, and rushed to the rear of the engine for the purpose of jumping off to save his life; when, upon turning again to take another look ahead, he was completely astounded by the discovery that the light had disappeared, but where to, or how, no one was able to say. The story is substantiated by all those who were upon the train, who state that they all saw the light directly ahead, very distinctly and rather larger than the usual front lights.

After running a short distance the train was stopped, and those engaged upon it instituted a search for the cause of this mysterious light, but all of their efforts were in vain, as there was no light of any kind to be seen in the entire neighborhood. The Republican says, it will be recollected that a man was killed at this very spot about a week since, and it is the supposition of those who saw it, that the light was caused by some supernatural agency, as they are of the opinion that it was entirely too large to have been the reflection of a hand-lantern. As we are not inclined to believe in "ghosts," we have some doubt about this, but it was certainly a singular phenomenon of some kind.

A BLOOMER IN THE LOBBY OF THE MAINE LEGISLATURE.—The Maine House of Representatives has one feature in its organization unknown, I believe, to all other legislative bodies. I refer to a sort of a "daughter of the regiment," in the person of a woman in Bloomer costume, who daily takes her seat in the area of the House, with as much regularity and punctuality as the Speaker himself. She is now serving out her third term, and manifests as much interest in the doings of the body as many of its members. She has become possessed with the idea that she has been wronged out of the property which should have descended to her from her husband, and that by her attendance here she will be able to effect the passage of a law securing to "widows their rights." Annually she presents her petition, and it is referred to the appropriate committee, which always reports, as this year, that "legislation is inexpedient." Her Republican friend Mr. Pickard, of Hampden, opposed the acceptance of the report, and with much earnestness and eloquence advocated her cause at considerable length; his speech did not prevent the unanimous acceptance of the report.

A few minutes after, two more petitions were presented from the same individual, one for an act for the "protection of gardens," another that "widows may have the right to plead their own cases in court." The former was referred to the Committee on Agriculture, the latter to that on Attorney General's Report, of which Mr. Pickard, of Hampden, is Chairman.

The Schlesinger Case.

From the National Police Gazette.

In June, 1858, we published an article furnished us by persons well informed, under the caption of "Domestic Frauds and Foreign criminals," and which related to one Schlesinger, who, as a member of the Legislature of Wisconsin, was charged with receiving a bribe for passing a railroad bill. That gentleman subsequently published an article in a Wisconsin paper denying the truth of the statement, and in order to prove the truth of the assertions our informants sent to France for the evidence, and a few days since furnished us the following certificate of the Court in which Mr. Schlesinger and Mr. Weil were convicted, the original of which is now at our office:

EXTRACTS FROM THE MINUTES OF THE CLERK OF THE COURT OF APPEALS OF PARIS.

From a decree given on the 31st of January, 1848, by the Court of General Sessions of the Department of the Seine, against a person named Schlesinger, aged 50 years, agent for the substitution by the army, having resided at Paris, on the Boulevard Poissoniere, No. 6.

2d, and Moses Weil, aged 48 years, employed by Schlesinger, having resided in Paris, in the street of the Milles du Caloaire Nio, who both are absent, the following has been extracted:

The Court, after having heard the Attorney General on his motion, and after due deliberation of the result of the examination, where it is proved that Schlesinger, who was a merchant during the year 1843, failed, and concealed all, or a part of what he possessed, and put aside his business books, which constituted the crime of fraudulent bankruptcy.

And that Moses Weil has, at the same time, helped Schlesinger, with knowledge in the preparation and fulfillment of the crime.

That Schlesinger, in the year 1842 or 1843, had forged, or caused to be forged by other parties, sixty-four notes of different amounts.

And that the said Weil has aided at the same time, or assisted by knowledge, Schlesinger in the deeds which were used for these crimes.

That, in short, both of them have made use of the forged papers.

The said Schlesinger and Weil have been guilty of the crimes above specified, and by virtue of the articles 403 and 404 of the criminal code, sentences the said Baruch Schlesinger and Moses Weil to seventy years hard labor, and to the costs of the case.

This is an extract in conformity with the decree delivered to Mrs. Schlesinger on the 25th of September, 1848.

The Atrocious Murder of Dr. Croxton, by two Female Slaves—His Murderers Confess the Crime—Full Particulars.

Last Tuesday, (says the Petersburg, Va., Express of Feb. 7th,) the citizens of Tappahanock were shocked by the intelligence that a most horrible murder had been committed within a few miles of that town.

The details are sickening and dreadful.—Dr. Wm. S. Croxton, an aged and well-known citizen of this county, on Monday morning last, was seen by his son and overseer, alive and well at his own house, about four miles from this place. His son went off to school, and his overseer to attend to some farm duty, both intending to return at night, Dr. Croxton, two negro women, and a small negro girl being the only persons left on the place.

At night the young man returned from school at the usual hour, and was told by the servants that his father had gone away.—Shortly afterwards the overseer returned, and after waiting till bed time, the old man being still absent, they were naturally alarmed for his safety, but knew not where to look for him. The two negro women were again interrogated, but they persisted in declaring that their master had gone out through the gate on horseback, since which time they had seen nothing of him. While they were still talking, one of the neighbors came to the house, bringing Dr. Croxton's horse, having found him in a straw-stack at a considerable distance from the place—the saddle-skirts were cut in several places, and there were other evidences to lead to the suspicion that there had been foul play.

Nothing further was elicited that night, but the following morning, several members assembled, and together with the overseer went to the stable and tracked the horse in a contrary direction to that which the women said he had taken, and this circumstance, together with the confusion manifested by the negroes, directed suspicion to them.

The little girl, whom we have above referred to, stated that she had not seen her master since Monday morning, but that there was a great fire in the kitchen all day. It was thus suggested to those present that the negro women had murdered the old man and burned the body. Search was accordingly made, and, among the ashes in the "lye-hopper" there were found pieces of human bones, a jack-knife, spectacles, buttons, etc., proving that Dr. Croxton had met a horrible fate.

The negroes, now terrified to the highest degree, confessed that they had committed the murder and consumed the body. They were accordingly taken before Justice Hale, who issued a warrant for their committal to jail.

The remains of the deceased were collected and a jury empannelled, the verdict being in accordance with the above facts.

On Wednesday last we visited the two prisoners now in jail. Their names are Ann and Eliza; the former being about thirty-two years of age, and the latter twenty. Both have infant children less than two months old. Ann is a dark mulatto with a decidedly bad countenance. Eliza is much lighter and quite good looking. Neither one appears to realize the enormity of the crime they have committed, and both talk freely about it.

According to their own story, they plotted the murder on Sunday morning, and, accordingly, on Monday, the old man being left alone with them, they determined to carry out their plan. About 10 o'clock on Monday, Dr. C. had occasion to use a grind stone at the kitchen door, and while in the act of sharpening a plane iron, Eliza came behind and struck him with a grubbing hoe, and Ann, who was turning the grind-stone, then seized an ax and struck him another blow on the head. He fell without a groan or struggle, probably stunned by the blow. Eliza then seized him by the arms and Ann by the feet, dragged him to the kitchen and threw him on the fire. All day long they kept the fire burning, until the body was, as they thought, entirely consumed.

HOW MARRIAGE TAMES "STRONG-MINDED WOMEN."—The New York correspondent of the Springfield (Mass.) Republican, in describing Mrs. Lucy Stone Blackwell's latest address upon her favorite reform, the "emancipation" of her sex, says:

Four years have elapsed since I last heard Lucy Stone, when she spoke with the utmost ease, with marked eloquence and perfect assurance of manner, before a large audience at the City Assembly Rooms. Remembering her as she seemed then, it was extremely difficult to make the Lucy Stone of Thursday evening identical with the Lucy Stone of four years ago. The bright cheeks were there, the girlish figure, the musical voice; but the old assurance, the perfect self-poise, the rapid, confident, slightly saucy utterance, were all wanting. She did not seem less earnest, but less assured. She told her old story of woman's legal disability and wrongs, but not in the old demanding and defiant tones. The mother's heart has dissolved the woman's voice, and what was once pertness is now pathos; what it has lost in rigor, it has gained in tenderness.

Those who listen to Lucy Stone Blackwell and to her sister-in-law, Antoinette Brown Blackwell, before their marriage, cannot fail to observe the great change which has come over the public manner of these ladies since that event. Although they still adhere to their pet idea of an oratorical mission, and occasionally leave their homes and their babies to talk on a public platform, they do so in a much more subdued and womanly way than of old. The brothers Blackwell married these ladies with a full knowledge of their strong-minded tendencies. Was it in order to undertake the fascinating task of "taming" them, as did the husband of Shakspeare's "Shrew?" Antoinette Blackwell has a noble nature, and so burdened is it with the sorrows of humanity, and a sense of its own high mission, that her voice seems broken, and her words come low and slow. While on Thursday evening, here stood "Lucy," talking, to be sure, yet blushing and trembling as she never did in that little, ridiculous, impertinent Bloomer, that she used to wear.

AN ARCHITECT proposes to build a "Bachelor's Hall," which will differ from most houses in having no Eves.

Religious Miscellany.

PREACHING IN LONDON THEATRES.—A circular has been issued by the United Committee of London, of which Lord Shaftesbury is chairman, naming a number of theatres and halls in the populous parts of the metropolis which are available for Sunday preaching, and proposing that a three months series of services should be arranged; half to be conducted by Episcopal clergymen and half by Dissenting Ministers. Daily devotional meetings are on the increase in London, and the hearts of christianity there are encouraged.

A PHARISEE.—A native New Zealand preacher defined a Pharisee as follows: "A Pharisee," he said, "is like a bag tied half way down. The bag is open at the top, but anything put into it would not reach the bottom. So it is with the Pharisee. When he prays he opens wide his mouth, he keeps his heart close shut; he asks with his lips for things which his heart cares not for. Besides, he always talks for effect—for even if God were to grant him the things he asks for, it would only be a waste of good gifts, for they could not get to the bottom—his pride, like the string that is tied around the bag, preventing him; they would therefore do him no good, as they would reach no further than his throat."

THE PRISONER FOR THE GOSPEL IN SPAIN.—SENTENCE OF ESCALANTE.—We deeply regret to learn from a correspondent that Escalante has been sentenced to nine years penal servitude for circulating the Bible. We hope that this intelligence will stimulate the Christians of this country to more earnest prayer, followed up by vigorous and untiring efforts, until this iniquitous sentence is reversed.—We must add that measures ought to be taken for the relief of Escalante's family, who are in a state of great destitution.—English paper.

IS RELIGION BEAUTIFUL?—Always! In the child, the maiden, the wife, the mother, religion shines with a holy, benignant beauty of its own, which nothing on earth can mar. Never yet was female character perfect without the steady faith of piety. Beauty, intellect, wealth! They are but pitfalls, dark in the darkest day, unless religion throws her soft beams around them to purify and exalt, making twice glorious that which seemed all loveliness before.

Religion is very beautiful, in health, or sickness, wealth or poverty. We can never enter the sick chamber of the good, but soft music seems to float on the air; and the burden of their song is, "Lo, peace is here."

Could we look in the thousands of families to-day, where discontent fights sullenly with life, we should find the chief cause of unhappiness, want of religion in woman. O, religion! benignant majesty, high on thy throne thou sittest, glorious and exalted. Not above the clouds, they come never between thee and the pious souls; not beneath the clouds, for above them is Heaven, opening through a broad vista of exceeding beauty.

Is religion beautiful? We answer, all is desolation and deformity where religion is not.

THE REVIVALS IN SCOTLAND.—The last steamer brought us a file of the Revival Record, a paper published at Glasgow, to the close of January. The papers are filled with accounts of the revival at Glasgow, and the extra services in Edinburgh, Pollockslaws, Perth, Ayr, Dumbarton, Hamilton, Helensburgh, &c. It says:

"The course adopted is to invite anxious inquirers forward to the communion rail and to the vestry, as an opportunity is thereby given to their immediate direction to the Savior, while the prayers of the people of God ascend to the throne of grace on their behalf. The number of persons who have thus sought the Lord in these services was stated to have been upwards of 500, at the close of the service of last Sabbath night; of these, more than 400 had given satisfactory evidence of having found peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ.

Pressing invitations from other places are likely soon to deprive Glasgow of Dr. and Mrs. Palmer. The encouraging state of things, however, induces them to prolong their stay longer than they first intended."

The above extract is from the Record of January 21st. A paper of the 25th says that up to that date the names of 800 persons have been recorded.

INTERESTING FROM INDIA.—By the Arabia, we have the following:

The Overland Mail Friend states that the Rajah of Kuppoorthulla, who recently married a Christian girl, has established a mission, to be supported entirely by himself.—Mr. Woodside, of Dehra Doon, and Dr. Newton, medical missionary, have charge of the new mission. The Rajah had thrown off all caste prejudices, and is diligently studying the Scriptures, with a view to baptism. This is the first instance in which a native chief has established and supported an entire mission on his own estates. Dhuleep Singh gave liberal donations to the American and other missions.

A MISSION FOR WOMEN.—How many we know who are suffering from ill-health merely from having nothing particular to do. "Go and visit the poor," is always said. And the best, those who have the deepest feeling of the importance of the occupation, answer in their souls (if not loudly:) "We do not know how. If we only go into the cottage and talk, we see little difference between gossipping with the poor and gossipping with the rich; or, if our intercourse is to be merely grounded upon the 'two-and-sixpence,' or the load of coals, we don't know whether we do as much good as we do harm." On finding a cottage, generally comfortable looking and respectable, one day in the strangest state of nakedness and disorder, the woman answered. "La! now; why, when the district visiting ladies come, if we didn't put everything topsy-turvy they wouldn't give us anything!" To be able to visit well, is not a thing which comes by instinct, but, on the contrary, is one of the rarest accomplishment; but when attained, what a blessing to both visitors and visited!—Miss Nightingale.

MARRIAGE OF MAR YOHANAN.—The visit of the Nestorian Bishop, Mar Yohanan, to this country several years since will be remembered by those interested in the cause of Missions. Mr. Cochrane writes to the Secretaries of the American Board, under date of Sept. 30:

"Mar Yohanan, an Evangelist Bishop who visited the United States a few years ago, pleading the example of Luther and the Apostles has abandoned his vows of celibacy and was married a few weeks since. The step was one of his own choosing, and made in the face of many threats, as well as imputations of unworthy motives. But he bids fair to survive the shock—the excitement, in fact, being much less than was apprehended—and we may hope that in obedience to natural and revealed laws, he will become a happier and more useful man. The Evangelicals almost universally approve of his course, and regard his marriage as one of the heaviest blows the old hierarchy here has received."

RICHES.—A young man once expressed his surprise to Dr. Franklin, that the possession of great riches should ever be attended with great solicitude, and instanced a merchant who, although in the possession of unbounded wealth, was busy, and much more anxious than the most industrious clerk in his counting-house. The Dr. in reply, took an apple from a fruit basket and gave it to a child in the room, who could scarcely grasp it in his hand. He then gave him a second, which filled the other; and choosing a third, remarkable for its size and beauty, he presented that also. The child, after many ineffectual efforts to hold the three apples, dropped at last upon the carpet and burst into tears. "See," said Franklin, "there is a little man with more riches than he can enjoy."

CHINA.—A letter from Fuh-Chau, of December 7, says that the Rev. R. S. Maclay, of the Methodist Mission, with his family, left that place on the 28th of November in the ship Samuel Russell, for the United States. The departure of Mr. Maclay is much regretted. With the exception of Mr. Peet, Mr. Maclay was the oldest missionary in Fuh-Chau.

Special Notices.

MOTHERS! MOTHERS!

DON'T FAIL TO PROCURE MRS. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for children teething. It has no equal on earth. It greatly facilitates the process of teething, by softening the gums, reducing inflamation—will allay all pain, and is sure to regulate the bowels. Depend upon it, mothers, it will give rest to yourselves, and relief and health to your infants. Perfectly safe in all cases.

This valuable preparation is the prescription of one of the most experienced and skillful Female Physicians in New England, and has been used with never failing success in millions of cases.

We believe it is the best and surest remedy in the world, in all cases of Dysentery and Diarrhœa in children, whether it arises from teething or any other cause.

If life and health can be estimated by dollars and cents, it is worth its weight in gold.

Millions of bottles are sold every year in the United States. It is an old and well tried remedy.

PRICE ONLY 25 CENTS A BOTTLE.

THE PUBLIC BLESSING WHICH IS now so universally admitted to exist in Moffat's Life Pills and Phœnix Bitters, is every day demonstrated by their astonishing efficacy in the cases which they are announced to cure. All the complaints of the stomach and bowels, weakness of the digestive organs and of the system generally, bilious and liver affections, night fevers, head aches, piles costiveness, consumption, rheumatism, scurvy, impurity of the blood, or blotched and sallow complexions, soon yield to their curative properties. A single trial invariably secures them the title of the best family medicine now before the public. For sale by the proprietor, W. B. MOFFAT, at his office, 235 Broadway, and by Store Keepers and Druggists generally.

THE SENTINEL.

TO MY MOTHER.

My mother! many a burning word
Would not suffice the love to tell
With which my inmost soul is stirred,
As thoughts of thee my bosom swell!
But better I should ill express
The passion thus, than leave untold
The glow of filial tenderness
Which never in my heart grows cold.

Oft as I muse o'er all the wrong,
The silent grief, the secret pain,
My froward youth has caused, I long
To live my childhood o'er again.
And yet they were not all in vain,
The lessons which thy love then taught;
Nor always hath it dormant lain.
The fire from thy example caught.

And now, as feelings all divine
With deepest power my spirit touch,
I feel as if some prayer of thine,
My mother! were availing much.
And thus availing, more and more,
Oh be it thine in bliss to see
The hopes with which thy heart runs o'er
In fondest hour fulfilled in me!

[Written expressly for the Daily Sentinel.]

TWENTY STEPS

TO ONE WOMAN'S HEART.

As Chartsey closed the manuscript, he detected a yawn on Mary's face. He detected it, but though she lengthened the effort into a grimmace for his especial benefit, he vowed afterwards that he did not see it. Lotty was asleep with her head on a bank of moss; the willow braids scattered about in picturesque disorder. The red glare of the setting sun came through the trees in long dusty shafts like powdered amber, and the chirp of grocust rung out clear and resonant. No word was spoken for several minutes; all felt the charm of the hour. The tinkling of the bells on the returning cows, and the occasional fluttering of a bat all told of declining day in their own peculiar music.

I do not know how it came about, but Mary insisted that Blanche should "take tea" with us. Some little while after, we were all sitting at the table in the supper room, and Merlin appearing to catch an extra impulse from our own joyousness, never displayed so much alacrity and garrulity at the same time. Then John came in from the Post Office and brought a new sheet of music. It was a new schottische fresh from Dodworth; so Chartsey must spread it on the piano, and while he executed the music, Blanche was condescending enough to let us twirl her round on the carpet and through on the great porch where the moon was shining.

What a time we made of it! And afterwards when I walked up the road with her, I felt jubilant enough to have endowed all mankind.

I was not a little perplexed in trying to account for Blanche's manner. Not a word had been said by either of us in reference to the occurrences of the season before. She seemed to be as happy in ignoring them as myself. I learned that Hartington was in the city—nothing more—and I parted with the lady at her own door, feeling highly favored, and walked back in a rapturous state of mind.

The next day the same scenes were enacted at the summer house—even Lotty insisted on being present, and Chartsey, with his accustomed preparatory remarks, commenced:

STEP THIRD.

When Jerry Linton left the house of Miss Tanglegrass he drove his tandem directly to the corner of Broadway and Houston streets. Up the stairs of the large brick building which stood opposite the grey stone church, was the studio of our friend Greenway. And here, when Jerry entered, he found a singularly merry trio, consisting of Clinton, Stansbury and Greenway. Clinton was accoutered in a hunting shirt of the true aboriginal material, and his attenuated legs were graced with the leather ornaments usually wore by Indians. As the new comer opened the door he was saluted with a war whoop accompanied with a very ferocious flourish of tomahawks, which for a moment caused him to doubt the reality of the scene presented to his senses. Stansbury having accumulated a number of feathers on his head, and trickled himself out with a quantity of beads and trinkets, presented not a bad picture of the forest chivalry as he strutted up and down the somewhat contracted room among canvases and easels. Greenway lay upon a lounge admiring with an artistical eye the costume and postures.

"Ha, Jerry," exclaimed Ed., "open your cerulean orbs, is this a savage you see before you? eh. How's this!" and folding his arms he took a theatrical stride a la Metamora, saying, "you have sent for me and I have come; if you don't want me I will go back to my wigwam—how's that. Haven't got the Forest tone, eh!"

"What in the name of Tecumseh is going on! Private theatricals—masquerade!"

"If you will call off your confounded terrier from that flower girl," rejoined Greenway, "I'll let you into a secret. By the shades of Umber and Cremnitz, the animal has had his tail on her cheek as it is! Here you quadrupedal abomination!" he continued, catching the terrier by the loose skin of his neck, "the less you are seen and heard in here, the better;" and forthwith the animal was placed on the very lofty summit of a dressing case, in company with two or three half-finished Venus's and a noseless bust of Benjamin West. "It is quite bad enough to have these Goths among my wares without any display of animal spirit," he continued, seating himself again by Jerry's side.—"There is a spree a brewing, do you see it?"

"And a savage one," added Ed.

"Well, then," answered Jerry, addressing Greenway; "wipe that confounded chrome yellow off your moustache, and let us hear all about it."

"You see," said the artist picking up an oily rag and elaborating the yellow pigment all over his lip; "you see Ed. here is up to some kind of a lark with Chris., I don't exactly understand all the particulars myself. but the little man is to be sold in some way, and—"

"Jerry is to provide the supper," interpolated Ed, arranging his leggings.

"For Heaven's sake stop rubbing that infernal yellow paint all over your face, and take my 'Nip' down before he jumps and damages something. I am ready for fun, but commence square."

'Nip' was the terrier, and Jerry on concluding this speech, immediately commenced another and more endearing one to the animal perched up above him, commiserating his elevation by the affectionate assurance that "Nippy must'nt jump; don't you do it, that's a brick; did they hoist the little 'Nippy' out of his sphere, &c.," and then with ludicrous severity, as the dog approached the edge of the tall case, and went through the premonitory symptoms of jumping off, "Lie down sir! Lie down!" an order which Clinton effectually neutralized by whistling to the terrier in the most persuasive manner, and snapping his fingers in hopes of bringing him down.

Finally, by means of a table, Jerry succeeded in liberating his pet, and having seen him safely stowed away behind an ancient castle that stood in a distant corner, he once more evoked an explanation.

"Yesterday," began Clinton, "I was walking with Christmas on Greenwich Street, and we met an aboriginal individual dressed out in their kind of toggery. Chris., who has read abundantly of Cooper and Simms, and Mayne Reid's novels, and never saw an Indian before, has a very lofty idea of the critters. All romance, bravery, honor and paint; nature's noblemen, and all that sort of thing. Well, he told me confidentially of his respect and admiration for the race, and expressed a desire to get into the company of some of the braves. I told him it was the easiest thing in the world. There were four chiefs just arrived in town; all he had to do was to invite them to dinner some afternoon. I told him that Jerry Linton would fix it all, as his father was once Indian agent; that you spoke Choctaw and Tuscarora intelligibly, and would be delighted to act as interpreter. Do you perceive?"

Jerry replied by a hearty laugh, in which Greenway joined.

"The thing must be neatly managed, though," continued Ed. "We must flatter the Briton's little peculiarities, and come the heroic dodge out of respect to his pre-conceived notions. Stansbury will act as a squaw—"

"Never!" said Stansbury, emphatically, striking an attitude of supreme disgust. "Big Indian or nothing!"

"Chris. boards up at a widow's in Fourteenth Street, and will provide a banquet at my dictation. Now, the only point on which I am undecided is, whether to finish up the evening by a mock drunk, in which we shall perform a war-dance, and scalp the whole party, or go peaceably away and leave him in blissful ignorance of our real natures. It would be such a jolly good spree to murder one of our number seriously and leave him on their hands, eh, Jerry?"

"When does the affair come off?" asked Linton, surveying with some admiration the enthusiastic countenance of Clinton.

"It must come off to-night; and I must away. I promised Chris. to meet him at the Chrystal, between three and four, to let him know if the savages had accepted his invitation. You'll find the toggery all there," he added to Jerry, as he hastily divested himself of the hunting shirt. I got a good half-dozen suits from Allen, for fear we should be rather hard to accommodate."

Shortly after, Clinton and Stansbury went out, and Greenway, addressing Jerry, said: "Now, then, let's hear how you made out with the Tanglegrass people."

"Nothing," answered Linton. "Miss Ontario evidently knows nothing about the young woman; or if she does, will not divulge it."

"How did you come about it?—carelessly or blunderingly?"

"I asked her a straight-forward question, and she answered me, to all appearance, honestly. You must be mistaken, Greenway."

"Possibly," said the latter, in a manner which plainly indicated he thought it impossible. "As you say, we shall have to give it up and let the future discover the girl at random."

"Nonsense!" rejoined Linton. "I shall get Christianson's yacht to-morrow and go up the river for the mere purpose of making an examination of that house."

AS ACCIDENTS WILL HAPPEN EVEN in well regulated families, it is very desirable to have some cheap and convenient way for repairing Furniture, Crockery, Toys, &c.

SPALDING'S PREPARED GLUE

Meets all emergencies, and no household can afford to be without it. It is always ready and up to the sticking point. There is no longer a necessity for limping chairs, splintered veneers, headless dolls and broken cradles. It is just the article for cone, shell and ornamental work, so popular with ladies of refinement and taste.

This admirable preparation is used cold, being chemically held in solution, and possessing all the valuable qualities of the best cabinet maker's glue. It may be used in the place of ordinary mucilage, being vastly more adhesive.

THE SENTINEL.

COMMERCIAL.

FRIDAY EVENING, February 24-h, 1860.

There were no through freight trains in on the Milwaukee & Mississippi, or Milwaukee & Minnesota Railroads up to the hour of meeting on 'change, and receipts therefore were trifling, including 5,290 bushels of wheat, 50 dressed hogs, 54 hides, and 635 pounds butter.

The wheat market opened at an improvement of ½c to-day, and subsequently under the influence of the New York report advanced another ½ cent. No. 1 selling at $1 on the track; No. 2 at 93½c; and Extra at $1,05 delivered in bags. Buyers, however, found all they wanted at these figures, sellers who had been holding back for several days taking the opportunity of this improvement to realize.

The only transactions in flour were sales of a few small lots of mixed country Extras at $4,60.

Oats remain very quiet and can scarcely be quoted. Corn is unchanged, shelled selling at 49c delivered.—There is a good local demand for barley, and prices have an upward tendency. Extra white sold at 70c, and No. 1 at 65@64c per bushel, weighing 50 pounds, that being the brewers' standard. The commercial standard, it should be remembered is 48 pounds, and no little annoyance is created by this variation.—There is a very general desire amongst dealers to establish the standard permanently at 48 pounds, and we would suggest to them that concert of action on their part is the best means of accomplishing that end.

There was no perceptible change in the market for other articles.

CHICAGO Feb. 23rd.—Receipts, 1,916 bbls flour; 12,417 bushels wheat; 10,565 bush corn; 4,625 bush oats; 977 bus rye; 1,959 bush barley.

The weather to day was cold and more favorable for forward Hogs, which caused a firmer and a better market. The receipts, however, were light, and there was but much encouragement for either packers or shippers to bid freely. The sales ranged from $5,50@5,60. Live Logs were also in fair demand by packers and prices were steady. Beef cattle quiet at yesterday's prices.

In provisions we have to report a firm market,—there being little or no movement here buyers are trying point on the Illinois and Mississippi rivers To-day 2,000 pieces Sides and Shoulders from salt sold at 6½c and 5½c, loose, delivered at Peklin. Mess Pork 15 still inquired for and the market is firm. Prime reported at 9c Country Mess and M. O. at $15,75 and $15,75. Lard is in good demand and firm. Tallow steady.

The Flour market, owing to orders from N. Orleans, was more active to-day; but there is no visible improvement in prices—about 2,000 bbls changed hands at $4,62½@4,90 for common to choice spring extras, and $5,10@5,37½ for good to choice white winter. Towards the close, however, holders were considerably firmer, in view of the upward tendency of wheat.—There was a good speculative and shipping inquiry for wheat, and the market was firm at yesterday's outside prices; sales of No. 1 Spring being made at $1,00 to $1,01; No 2 Spring at 92c in store, and 87c for Rejected Spring in store. About 16,000 bushels changed hands at 44½@45c for No. 1, 43c for No. 2, and 40@39½c for Rejected in store—closing firm at 44½c for No. 1. Offers were in large supply, and the market fell le under a limited demand—sales being made at 83½c for No. 1 on track. Rye steady. Barley was in good demand for shipment to Pittsburgh, and the market firm, with sales of No. 1 at 65c on track. Higher would rule dull and drooping—1015c being the highest price obtained. Clover seed was more active, but at a decline of 50@10c—interal sales being made at the uniform price of $4,25. Prime Timothy seed is nominal, under the inquiry, but there is a large stock of info. for pressing on the market, which renders it dull and heavy. Hungarian Grass is less inquired for, and it is in a manner neglected. Hides active and steady.—Press & Tribune.

CINCINNATI, FEBRUARY 22.—Wheat is steady at late quotations, the demand being still chiefly local.

In other grades, the only change to notice is a firmer market for corn and barley, the latter being in good demand at 68@70c.

The market for provisions is quiet, and compared with the spirit prevailing a week ago, may be called dull; matters are a little more favorable to buyers, making negotiations easier. There were reported 25 bbls bacon shoulders at 5½c; 12 tierces of hams, at 9½c; 50 tierces of bend lard at 10c, 100,000 lbs of bulk sides, averaging 35 lbs, at 5¾c. We also heard of 150,000 lbs of shoulders and sides at 6¼@6¾c; a small sale of lard at 10½c; 100 bbls of clear sides. April delivery, at 10½c.—Commercial, of yesterday.

ST. LOUIS, February 22d.—Groceries are not active, though we note sales to-day of 800 bags of coffee, in lots, mostly prime, at 12½c, and lower for lower grades. Also 25 bbls fair sugar from the levee, on private terms, and 25 bbls prime plantation molasses from store at 35½c, a very low rate, when it is seen that such is 60@64c in New Orleans, and it takes 5c per gallon to bring it here.

Flour—Market inactive. Sales of 100 bbls low grade at $4,20; 150 bbls do on p. t., and 54 bbls country superfine at $5,05.

Wheat—Steady, with sales of 522 sks common fall at $1,29@1,31; 945 sks fair at $1,34@1,36; 1,324 sks good and prime at $1,38@1,39; 632 sks prime at $1,41@1,42; 492 sks common to choice at $1,31@1,32; 2,130 sks choice white and red at $1,42@1,43; and 491 sks on p. t.

BOSTON, FEBRUARY 20, P. M.—The market is firm but quiet. The sales have been at $5,25@5,37½ for common brands western; $5,50@5,40 for fancy brands; $5,75@6,00 for extra brands, and $6@6,25 for superfine bbl, including choice St. Louis brands. Southern Flour is firm but quiet at $5,75@6 for fancy brands; $6,25@6,75 for extras; and $7@8 for superfine ₱ bbl. In Corn very little has been done. Receipts light and held much more firmness to-day. We quote Southern yellow at 57@59c, as to quality; and white at 84@58c ₱ bushel.—Oats have been sold at 42@43c ₱ bushel for Northern and Canada; Prince Edward's Island are nominal—Rye 90c ₱ bushel. Shorts at $25. Fine Feed $26@25 ₱ ton. Provisions—Pork is firm and selling at $14@15 for prime; $15,50@16 for mess, and $20@20,50 ₱ bbl for clear, cash and 4 mos. Beef ranges from $9@9,50 ₱ bbl for Eastern and Western mess. Lard 11½@11¾c in bbls and tierces, and 12@12¾c in kegs; and Smoked Hams 10c ₱ ℔, cash and 4 mos. Butter is quiet at 18@20c for choice and 15@16c for fair and 11@12c for common. Cheese remains quite steady at 9@10½c ₱ ℔ as to quality. Dressed Hogs are selling at 7¼@8½ ₱ ℔, cash.—Courier.

MONTREAL, Feb. 20.—The Flour market has ruled very dull throughout the week, but as holders have not pressed hard lots, only a slight decline can be noted.—The sales have been nearly confined to superfine, fair brands of which have been sold to dealers at $5@5,05, some favorite brands of strong superfine fetching $5,10. Fancy is in limited demand at quotation. Extra ordinary brands have been sold at $5,75 at which figure they are dull, notwithstanding the small quantity offering. No future delivery. No sales have been reported; best brands superfine would fetch from $5,20 to 5,25 for May, and $5,25 to 5,30 for June delivery.

U. C. spring Wheat is wanted for May delivery at $1,25, without leading to sales; small lots ex cars have sold at $1 05@1,10. Oats—Small parcels have been taken at 42 to 43c ₱ 40 ℔s; holders generally ask 45c. Pease—Are offered at 76c, but are only saleable at 75c. Barley—Is unchanged; good lots are taken for local consumption at 70c.

In Beef no sales have been reported for some time: Pork has again advanced, and, with limited quantity offering, is firm at quotations. Butter is still dull. Fair lots are offered at 15 cents; choice is held at 16@17 cents.—Gazette.

DETROIT Fish MARKET.—The market for fish opens with prospects of greater busyness than for some years past, owing to the light stock and growing demand.—About 500 packages white fish were taken yesterday by a Cincinnati buyer at $4,50 for halves and $8,50 for wholes. But little inquiry for clover seed. Yesterday a lot of 100 bushels were closed out at $4,00, although $4,25 could have been obtained for smaller quantities of this same lot. A fair quotation would be $4@4,25.—Tribune of Wednesday.

The receipts for the week have been fair, amounting to 19,359 Hides from foreign and coastwise ports, and with moderate sales, the stock remains about the same as last week.

DRY HIDES.—We have again to report a very quiet market, with sales of 34,000 Hides at unaltered prices. There has been a moderate demand from exporters, and most of the sales have been for shipment, but the inquiry from the trade continues languid. Importers are quite firm in their views, and offer their stocks very sparing.

WET SALTED HIDES.—A fair demand prevails for export, but as the supply is moderate, sales are not extensive. There is little inquiry for home consumption.

For Upper Leather Hides the market continues very quiet and transactions are unimportant.

Import since 1st inst., has been 36,942 Hides from foreign, and 9,593 from coastwise ports. Total 46,435 Hides.

Sales have been 19,500 Hides for export.

The stock on hand of Oz and Cow Hides is 257,000, same time last year, 57,800, year before, 258,700;) 404 bales East India Cow and Buffalo.

LEATHER.—The market for hemlock continues much depressed with a very limited demand, and prices have declined ½c, since our last. The low prices have induced a slight demand for heavy leather for exportation enough has been shipped to exercise any influence on the market. The receipts from the tanneries are to a fair extent, and the stock is increasing. Oak-tanned is in moderate request at about previous rates.

FRIDAY, February 24.

THE PROPELLER CUYAHOGA of the D. & M. Railway Line, arrived at 4 o'clock this afternoon, with 56 tons mdse and a few passengers. She left Grand Haven at 7 o'clock this morning, making the trip across the Lake in nine hours, against a stiff head wind. The Cuyahoga commenced reloading immediately after discharging what freight she brought over, and it is expected that she will be able to leave on her return before midnight. There was a full cargo of pork, flour and produce on the dock awaiting shipment.

SOYER'S SULTANA'S SAUCE.

For Hot and Cold Dishes of all Kinds.

THIS MOST DELICIOUS and appetizing Sauce, invented by the renowned "SOYER," for the London Reform Club, is since his decease, manufactured by the well known House of CROSSE & BLACKWELL, London, from the original receipt, and is the favorite Sauce in England and on the Continent, with a high and growing reputation among American Epicures, and is much approved of as a stimulating and agreeable appetite and aid in digestion.

Opinions of the London Press.

"We recommend our correspondent to try Mons. Soyer's new Sauce, entitled the 'Sultana's Sauce.' It is made after the Turkish receipt in the flavor is excellent, and it is considerable aid in cases of SLOW AND WEAK DIGESTION."—The Launch.

"Savory, Piquant and Spicy, worthy the genius of Soyer."—Globe.

"A most valuable adjunct to Fish, Flesh, and Fowl, and should have a place on every table."—Mirror.

Richardson's Irish Linens, Damasks, DIAPERS, &C.—CONSUMERS OF RICHARDSON'S LINENS, and those desirous of obtaining the GENUINE GOODS, should see that the articles they purchase are sealed with the full name of the firm, viz: RICHARDSON, SONS & OWDEN, as a guarantee of the soundness and durability of the Goods.

This caution is rendered essentially necessary, as large quantities of inferior and defective Linens are presented, season after season, under the name of RICHARDSON, by Irish Houses, who, regardless of the injury thus inflicted alike on the American consumer and the fair dealers of the genuine Goods, will not readily abandon a business so profitable while purchasers can be imposed on with Goods of a worthless description.
